

“Frequently Asked Questions” – FAQ’s.

- What is our Area Number?
- It is Area 86 and you will find it printed on the Al-Anon & Alateen Registration/Group Records Change Form that can be found on the Ontario South website.

- Why can’t I just send you the changes without using the Group Records Change Form?
- Completing the form ensures that the group records coordinator has all the necessary information to accurately reflect the changes that you intend to have made. Especially important is your WSO I.D. Number because that number will guarantee that the information is applied to the correct group.

- How can I send changes to Ontario South?
- *To send the change form electronically, go to the Ontario South website <http://al-anon.alateen.on.ca/> - click on Meeting Lists – click on Al-non Registration/Group Change form – complete form – send. OR Send me a hard copy of the form which can also be found on-line in Section 10 of the Area Policy and Guidelines Manual. My address is found on the back of the Open Lines Newsletter.

- Do I have to send the changes to the World Service Office (WSO) ?
- NO, the group records coordinator will send all of the changes to WSO.

- How do I register a new group?
- Complete the Al-Anon Registration Form fully. In line 1 of the form you will know your District Number and Area Number only. Once you have sent it to the group coordinator the information will be entered in the Ontario South database and then it will be forwarded to the World Service Office.

- How does our new group get its WSO I.D. number?
- Once the WSO receives the registration it will send the WSO number to the group records coordinator who will then forward it to your new group.
